Dear Mrs. Hallmark:

Many thanks for your kind words of support. It is indeed reassuring to know that the majority of Americans see the need for an effective intelligence service. I greatly appreciate your taking the time to express your confidence in us.

Faithfully,

Vernon A. Walters
Lieutenant General, USA

Lt. Gen. Vernon A. Walters
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20013

Dear General Walters:

Having just read the September Issue of Washington Report and a synopsis of your luncheon speech before the American Security Council, I would like to make the following comments:

Please know, sir, that there are millions of Americans like myself, who are behind you and the CIA. We are sick to death of having to stand by, watching our government become a hotbed for the Red vermin who are determined to do us in.

As a mother of two sons, one who enlisted in the Army because he believes every young man should, I have brought my boys up to be proud of their heritage, enjoy life without drugs, and be damned good Americans.

Regardless of how much adverse publicity your Director Colby or yourself may be subjected to, just remember that more of us believe in what you are doing than you might imagine.

Sincerely yours,

S. Hallmark (Mrs.)
Secretary to the President
